
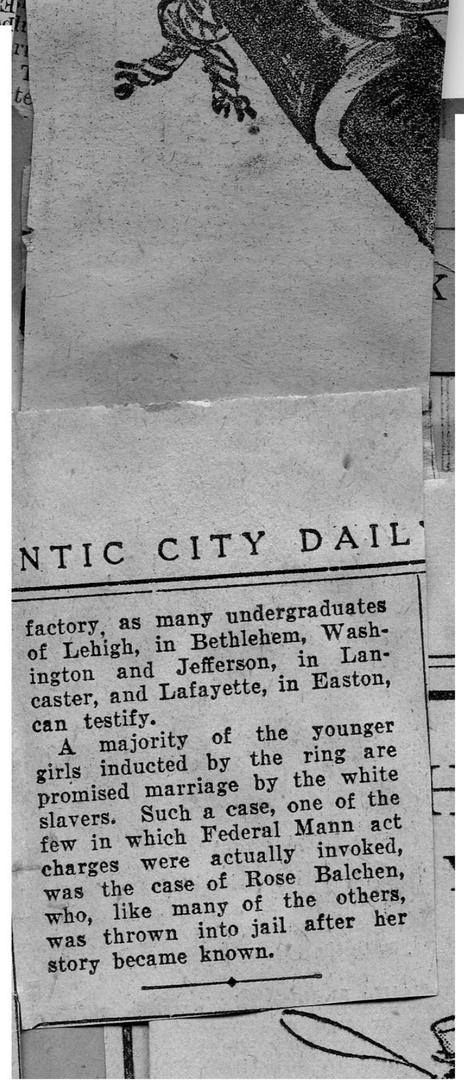
olved, but announced that in the future no abatements of adlock decrees would be issued unless the court had definite assurance that the premises were to be used for legal businesses.

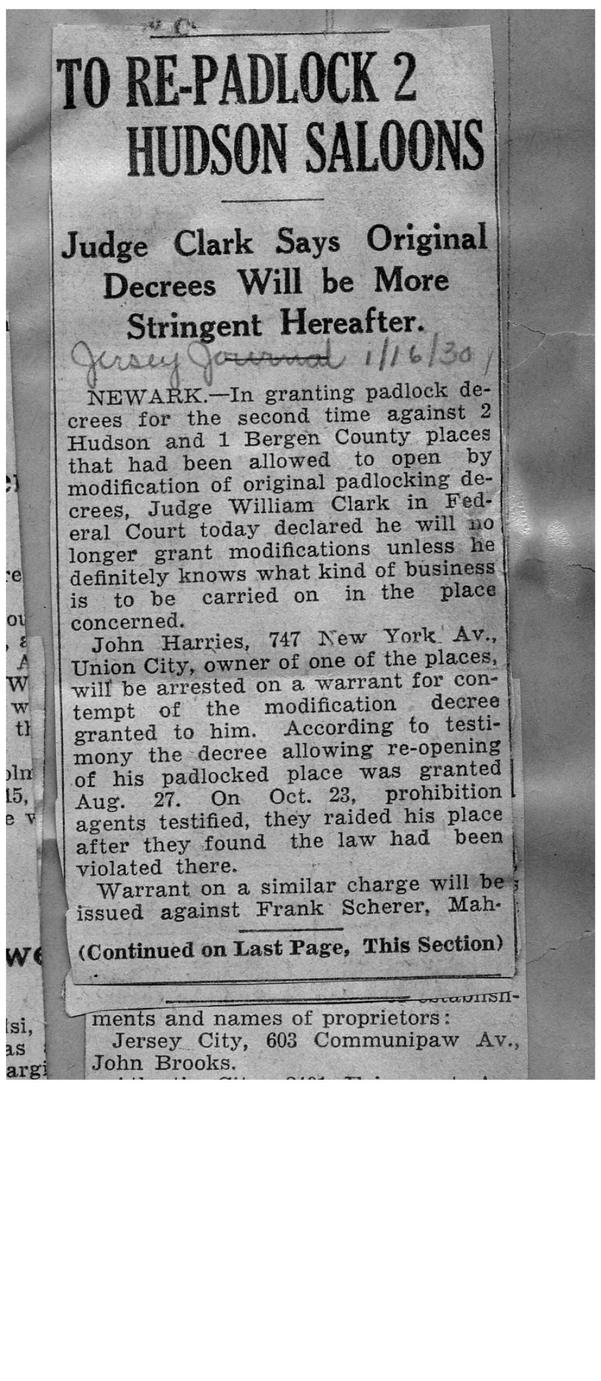
Judge Clark's move is a good one and his plan should be llowed by all federal judges. It would help to make propy owners more careful about permitting their stores to used as speakeasies.



NTIC CITY DAIL

factory, as many undergraduates of Lehigh, in Bethlehem, Washington and Jefferson, in Lancaster, and Lafayette, in Easton, can testify.

A majority of the younger girls inducted by the ring are promised marriage by the white slavers. Such a case, one of the few in which Federal Mann act charges were actually invoked, was the case of Rose Balchen, who, like many of the others, was thrown into jail after her story became known.



TO RE-PADLOCK 2 HUDSON SALOONS

Judge Clark Says Original Decrees Will be More Stringent Hereafter.

Jersey Journal 1/16/30

NEWARK.—In granting padlock decrees for the second time against 2 Hudson and 1 Bergen County places that had been allowed to open by modification of original padlocking decrees, Judge William Clark in Federal Court today declared he will no longer grant modifications unless he definitely knows what kind of business is to be carried on in the place concerned.

John Harries, 747 New York Av., Union City, owner of one of the places, will be arrested on a warrant for contempt of the modification decree granted to him. According to testimony the decree allowing re-opening of his padlocked place was granted Aug. 27. On Oct. 23, prohibition agents testified, they raided his place after they found the law had been violated there.

Warrant on a similar charge will be issued against Frank Scherer, Mah-

(Continued on Last Page, This Section)

ments and names of proprietors:

Jersey City, 603 Communipaw Av., John Brooks.