

Maryland Man May Get Post Poulson Quit

News 9/10/29

Satisfied to Continue

There, However, Is G. W.

Crabbe's Comment

Washington Bureau, NEWARK NEWS.

WASHINGTON—In the absence in New York of F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, it was asserted today that nobody in headquarters here was qualified to say whom he would nominate as successor to Rev. Marna S. Poulson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey, resigned.

From an unofficial but usually authoritative source, however, it was learned that George W. Crabbe, for several years superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, might be named in Mr. Poulson's stead. Crabbe is a veteran in the Anti-Saloon League game and took the Baltimore post soon after William H. Anderson, at one time a spectacular figure in league circles, was transferred to New York.

Mr. Crabbe, though not surprised his name had been mentioned, said today he had no official information that he was to be transferred from Maryland to New Jersey. No overtures, he said, had come to him from the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey.

Nevertheless, the fact his name may be under consideration was not altogether news to him. From out of the state he had received a letter from a friend who declared he knew McBride had him under consideration for successor to Poulson.

"I have had twelve pleasant years in Maryland," Mr. Crabbe said, "and am perfectly satisfied to continue here."

Successor Discussed.

Selection of a successor to Rev. Marna S. Poulson, who resigned recently as state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, was up for discussion at a meeting of the headquarters committee this afternoon in the headquarters in the Industrial building.

Mr. Poulson announced August 23 he had tendered his resignation to become pastor of the First Congregational Church of McKeesport, Pa.

Elwood Hollingshead, president of the league, presided at the meeting.

Under the bylaws of the league Dr. F. Scott McBride, national league superintendent at Washington, was to submit four nominations for the committee. If no one is chosen the committee may select its own candidate.

TAUGHT DRUG USE, CHARGE OF POLICE

Princeton Times
(Associated Press) 1929

PASSAIC, N. J., Sept. 18.—Five men accused of starting the youth of this city on the path of addiction to narcotic drugs, were held by police today for action of Federal authorities. They were arrested during the night in a raid on an alleged speakeasy at 22 East Monroe Street, said to be their headquarters.

The prisoners were Benjamin Goldstein, his brother David, William Yapchanka, William Leichter and Jacob Frost. Federal agents who said they traced a shipment of drugs to the place from Oklahoma, made the arrests with local police.

Benjamin Turner, police commissioner, charged the Goldstein brothers came here about two years ago, an arrival which resulted in the addiction of many boys, and girls, including high school students.