SALARY SLASH E
OFFERED IN S

WASHINGTON, March 1
to 15 per cent. cut in sal
Government employes abo year was proposed today i
Senator Connally, Democr
Meanwhile a House com hard at work drafting a bi duction in that branch Government workers' pa
balancing the budget.
Chairman McDuffie sai
to have the measure re
He added the House appeared to favor graduated reductions from about 1 per cent. for the smaller salaries to 20 per cent. for the larger ones.
Asserting that the Government is faced by the worst financial crisis for half a century, Connally proposed to cut all Government salaries until June 30, 1933.
A 5 per cent. reduction would be applied to salaries between $2,000 and $5,000; 10 per cent. to those between $5,000 and $10,000, and 15 per cent.
above $10,000.

WESTFIELD LAWYER
SEEKING JUDGESHIP

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP).—Alan Bruce Conlin, Westfield lawyer, has entered the lists of prominent candidates for a Federal judgeship in New Jersey.

The creation of a new judgeship is proposed in measures placed before Congress by Senator Kean and Representative Perkins. No action has been taken.

Conlin's name has been presented to members of Congress by friends and lawyers in Union County, although the bill has not yet come up for a vote in either house.

So far, the most prominent candidate for the post has been Philip Forman, United States Attorney for New Jersey. Other candidates include: Alexander McLeod, Passaic County Republican Committee chairman; Harlan Bessom, of Hudson County, and Richard C. Plummer, who as assistant State attorney general conducted an investigation of fraudulent stock deals.

ABETH BREWERY
WINS YEAR'S FIGHT

its legal fight with the Government, the Rising Sun
of Elizabeth retained pos-today of its property and ent.
y returned a verdict in favor brewery yesterday after Judge Boyd Avis had instructed that ulpment could not be cond if it were judged real estate.
Earlier in the trial, he had ruled against the Government in its search warrant as it pertained to a nearby building.
Property and equipment in the plant and a building near the premises, also raided, was valued at $250,000. A Federal agent was killed in the raid.
The case had been in the courts nearly a year, during which time a padlock for one year was obtained.

APRIL 4 IS FIXED
FOR BRANDLE TRIAL

Theodore M. (Teddy) Brandle, Jersey City labor leader and political lieutenant of Mayor Frank Hague, will be given a retrial in the Federal Court on April 4 on indictments charging violation of the income tax laws. He was tried on the same charges a year ago, and the jury disagreed.

United States District Attorney Forman fixed the date for the new trial.

The average fine assessed on dry law offenders was $212 in February, as compared with $500 in fines in the preceding month.

MORE WET ARRESTS
MADE IN JERSEY

(Washington Bureau of the Times)

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Federal prohibition officers made more arrests and seized more contraband liquor in February than in January in New Jersey and the courts disposed of more Federal prohibition cases last month than in the month preceding, according to the monthly report of the Bureau of Prohibition.

The report reveals that the Federal agents made arrests in 205 cases in the State in February as compared with 165 in the preceding month, and 67 persons were ordered held by the U. S. Commissioner in February as against 63 in January.

It is shown also that 89 cases were placed on the docket in February as compared with 108 in January. In February there were 154 pleas of guilty in Federal liquor cases in the State, 19 verdicts of guilty, and seven acquittals, leaving 534 cases unfinished at the end of the month, compared with seven pleas of guilty, one verdict of guilty and 12 acquittals, leaving 625 cases on the docket at the end of January.

Although prohibition forces, seized less liquor in February than they did the same month last year, they made more arrests, had more cases placed on the docket, and secured more convictions.

Arrests were made in 6,662 cases, compared to 5,162 in February last year, Prohibition Director Woodcock announced.

Prisoners held by commissioners numbered 4,250 compared to 3,291 in the same month last year; and 6,101 cases were placed on the docket, compared to 4,482 a year before.

Woodcock said 4,676 persons were given jail sentences and 4,294 were fined. The average jail

More than 20,000 persons are expected to attend the annual all-star show and fashion revue Saturday evening of the Israel Orphan Asylum, at Madison Square Garden, according to former Justice Gustave Hartman, founder and president of the institution.

Among those who will attend are national, State and City officials, jurists of the Federal, State and City courts, captains of industry, prominent members of the Bar, leaders in the educational and social fields and clergymen of all denominations.

BANDIT SHOOTS DOWN

Henry McCloskey and Charles Havemeyer. Mrs. Elvira Ruppert will be the accompanist. The Greenwood School Band has been engaged to take part in the program.

In charge of arrangements for the affair are John E. Higgins, chairman of the executive committee; Joseph Ryan, secretary; Norman Wright, treasurer, and Carl Wehner, stage manager. Mr. Higgins is handling the publicity for the show.

Large and enthusiastic a are still attending Hunt's O
where Marie Dressler in "Emm
in its third week, is the popu

...ates Commissioner Marvin

...ough declining to speak offi-
...ally, until he had studied the mat...ter in his office, the Attorney Gen...eral said it was his personal opinion
...that the Lindberghs would have to
...institute proceedings through the lo...cal prosecutor, as the complaining
...parties.

...He also pointed out that use of the
...was probably
...officials, al-
...of making
...within the
...ersey, would
...ment's activi-

...you ask Colonel Lind-
...he, within the last three
...made an anti-Japanese
...in the United States or

Anthony J. Scarpelli

JAILED ON STILL CH

TO BE DRESSED IN
and feel light and