As Tipsy Driver

Police Describe Defendant As Having Been Ardent Prohibition Advocate

Harry B. Sickles, 63 years old, of 910 Edgewood Avenue, described by police as having been an ardent prohibitionist, was arrested last night on a drunken driving charge.

Sickles was arrested at Brunswick Avenue and Southard Street by Justice of the Peace McRae, who turned him over to Patrolman Bacsik. The squire declares that his attention was directed to Sickles when the defendant drove his auto in such a manner that it obstructed traffic. He was taken to Police Headquarters and examined by a physician who ordered him held for trial.
