BRANDLE'S RETRIAL OFF UNTIL OCT. 27

Trenton Times

The trial of Theodore M. Brandle, North Jersey labor chief and lieutenant of Mayor Frank Hague, of Jersey City, and Joseph F. Hurley, on charges of income tax violations, has been postponed from October 5 to October 27.

The adjournment was granted today by Judge John Boyd in the United States District Court after Robert H. McCarter, defense counsel, asked for an extension of time. McCarter said that he had previous engagements to appear before other courts in the State.

The adjournment was granted over the vigorous protest of United States Attorney Phillip Forman who asked that no extension of time be given, but that the trial go on as originally scheduled.

Brandle and Hurley were tried earlier this year in a case that reached sensational proportions. After a lengthy trial the jury disagreed.
