Within the Hoover's breaking the Solid
Campaign Funds Investigating Committee been able to extra information. Yet only
More than two Writer made his signat that

Schrotths Oppose Carteret at Cadwalader Park This Afternoon
The first game of the American Legion

Gangdom

Gunmen Get Orders

Any of Killer Band

Aides to Slain Beer King Have Secret Meeting, Map Out Search

NOVEL EXTORTION STORY RELATED

Trenton Times 9/29/31

Son Accused of "Shakedown" On Threat of Exposing son entered into an alleged conspiracy to mulct his father and a business associate under threat of exposing concealment of income tax obligations, was unwoven before Federal Judge John Boyd Avis here today.

The case was aired before the court on motion to dismiss indictments against George Hassan, secretary of the J. G. Schmidt Iron Works, of Paterson, his counsel Herman C. Rust, and William R. Greenway, an auditor.

EASTMAN COMPANY MUST PAY ON STOCK

Trenton Times 9/29/31

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29 (AP).—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today affirmed the action of the Federal District Court of New Jersey in ordering the Eastman Kodak Company to pay back dividends of $853,500 to the alien property custodian on stock issued to a German corporation for its business in photographic supplies seized during the World War.

Charles Smith, of Elizabeth, was sentenced to serve 12 months in jail and to pay a fine of $500, while William Mears, of Philadelphia, was sentenced to serve 15 months in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500.

The men were caught on a beer truck at Hightstown, according to records of the government. The case was given to the jury last night and the verdict was opened today after court had convened.

MOTION OVERRULED IN EXTORTION CHARGE

Trenton Times 9/29/31

Judge John Boyd Avis, in the United States District Court yesterday, overruled a motion to dismiss proceedings against George Hassan, secretary of the J. G. Schmidt Iron Works, Passaic, and two others, on

CAMDEN MEN EXONERATED

The court overruled the motion after a day of argument and the indict-extortion charges.

ERS FOR HANS

Prove to Police They Were in Atlantic City at Time of Shooting

(Continued From Page One)

Duffy to be shot yesterday, wherthe division of the sums allegedly three men attempted to extort $50,000

Weinberger, counsel for Hassan, that the indictment be quashed, the court ruled that the indictm should stand.

Others named in the indictm are Herman C. Rust, attorney, a William F. Greenberg, accountant the company. It is charged that

It is under