piece of architecture, with each of the 18 rooms on a different level.

Six men, members of the Duffy gang, took charge of her there, refusing to let her talk to reporters or leave the place. They told her bluntly to "keep your mouth shut."

POLICE TAKE OVER SUITE

Philadelphia police took over Duffy's suite in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel there, going through numerous papers dealing with his extensive business connections.

Grossman is said to be an adherent of Dave Silverburg, a former ally of Duffy. Silverburg and Duffy split after the killing of Prohibition Agent James Finiello in a raid on the Rising Sun brewery in Elizabeth last September. Finiello is said to have been close to Duffy. At that time, Grossman was brought in for questioning.

Skali, named by police as the actual killer, is 24 and was arrested in 1928 on a m[illegible]rder charge, but was released. Gr[illegible]man likewise was

ANOTHER STEP NEARER

Plans for the new Trenton Post Office Building, which reached Postmaster Charles H. Updike yesterday, offer final evidence that this city is to have a beautiful and commodious structure for the conduct of Federal business. The five-story limestone edifice, with terra cotta and metal trimmings, will be a splendid addition to the downtown section, and its appointments promise greatly to facilitate the work of the government here.

Having obtained an alluring advance picture of the building, the people of Trenton will now eagerly await the submitting of bids, the award of contracts and the actual start of construction operations. The new Post Office has been a matter of community anticipation for months past. Its approach to reality is decidedly welcome as an aesthetic and utilitarian improvement and as a real boon to the employment situation here.

JUROR FOUND DEAD

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 24 (AP).—Court officers became impatient today because E. W. Beebe, a juror in the post office site condemnation proceedings, failed to appear in Federal Court.

At Beebe's home, 16 Hollywood Avenue, East Orange, he was found dead on the floor. Death was believed caused by heart disease.

once arrested for murder and later released. Silverman is a notorious Philadelphia gangster.

County Physician I. E. Leonard said tonight that four bullets had been fired into Duffy's head and that the killer had apparently stood about three feet away when he fired.

MONEY UNTOUCHED

Dr. Leonard said that a $1,000 bill and about $1,000 in smaller bills were in Duffy's pockets. The money was untouched by the killer. Duffy's $11,000 diamond ring was not on his finger and it is not known whether it was taken or whether he had not been wearing it.

Izzy Bass, a friend of Duffy's, was arrested as a material witness and released in $5,000 bail. About a dozen other gang figures are wanted for questioning, police said.

The body of the slain gang chief was taken to Philadelphia by an undertaker today. His henchmen will probably give him a gorgeous funeral.

Duffy Long Slated

[illegible] (AP)—The Intelligencer-Journal says it has learned from "a source that ought to be reliable" that Mickey Duffy, Camden, N. J., gangster who was shot and killed Saturday in an Atlantic City Hotel, was to have been "put on the spot," in Lancaster several weeks ago.

Plans went awry, the paper says it learned, when Duffy failed to make an expected trip to this city where members of his gang were rivals of other interests in the local beer racket.
